VOLUME 26, NUMBER 5

February 5, 2015

Are You Serious!?!

I'm sure this is a question that many of us have either thought to ourselves or uttered aloud on several occasions. Maybe someone changed lanes and cut you off while talking on a cell phone and going about 15 mph over the speed limit. Perhaps the food you ordered came out wrong for the third straight time. Or, your spouse could have forgotten something that you told them about several times. A list of the stimuli for this exclaimed question could go on for quite some time, and we'd probably have a good time if we were to sit down with a friend to talk about them. What caused me to say this most recently, though (as of the time I wrote this), was while watching the Super Bowl this past Sunday night.

If you watched the game, you know that the Seahawks had a really good chance to win the game late. They had a second and goal from one yard out and decided to throw the ball. It was intercepted! Seattle had in their backfield who I believe to be the best short yardage running back in the game. Instead of handing him the ball, they threw it, and, in turn, lost the game because of the turnover. We'll never know how it would have turned out if they had decided to hand it to Marshawn Lynch, but I have to believe that their chances of success would have been far greater if that had been the play that was called.

This idea of "Are you serious!?! " reaches far beyond just worldly things, though. Well, it should, at least. This should be a thought that provokes us to lovingly correct our brothers and sisters when they continually mess up. A kind suggestion, rather than harsh criticism, can do much good when we see folks struggling with things.

Additionally, I can't help but wonder how many times God has had this very thought concerning the decisions that I make. There is no doubt that we serve a loving God who desires to take our sins away, not count them up. God knows each one of us intimately (Psalm 139:13), and I wouldn't go so far as to say that our choices surprise Him. But, many of our decisions fail to please God and bring Him glory.

My goal for this week is to put forth a conscious effort to give God fewer opportunities to think, "Are you serious!?! " when it comes to the things that I do. I challenge you to do the same! Love Him. Serve Him. Please Him. He is so very deserving of that!

Jim was so thankful for the many cards he received from the members at Pulaski Street. He kept each one and had them displayed in his room. We want to express our sincere gratitude for each act of kindness that was shown towards our family after Jim's passing. It is very comforting knowing that others care. Sincerely,
