VOLUME 26, NUMBER 23

June 11, 2015

Christ-like Service
(Part 3)

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus said, "Beware of practicing your righteousness before other people in order to be seen by them, for then you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven" (Matt. 6:1). What, if anything, does this have to say about the service that we render to others?

The word "righteousness" in this verse is of a general character, which basically sums up the demands of God: "to do right" (Acts 10:35; 1 John 2:29; 3:7, 10; Rev. 22:11). Doing right would certainly include serving our fellow man (Matt. 20:26; John 13:14-15; Gal. 5:13).

Jesus stresses the fact that our acts of righteousness should not proceed from improper motives. Indeed, motives often determine the quality of our actions (cf. 1 Cor. 13:1-3). Consider the fact that a kiss may be an act of love, or it may be an act of betrayal (cf. Mark 14:44-46). Unfortunately, many of the religious leaders of Jesus' day were in the business of impressing men (Matt. 23:5; John 5:44; 12:42-43). Jesus makes it clear that their "reward" is the praise of men, and nothing more is due them.

For all intents and purposes, Christ-like service is content with hiddenness. It needs no human applause. In fact, when we render service to others, our motive in doing so should be to bring glory to God and not ourselves (Matt. 5:16). We serve others to point them to the Christ who served the world by laying down His life for the world (Mark 10:45).

THANK YOU

Thank you for the flowers, cards, and visits at my brother's death, J.R. Owens. In Christian love,

Vickie Neal and Brenda Owens

Thank you all for the love and support shown to us during the illness and death of my father. He loved his church family here at Pulaski Street. Thank you so much for the beautiful throw that was sent and the meal prepared for us after the funeral. Please continue to keep us in your thoughts and prayers as we continue to care for my mother. In Christian love,

Tony and Pam Allen

Dear brothers and sisters at Pulaski Street,

We want you to know how much we loved and appreciated each and every card we received after the loss of Hal's brother, Larry Gargis.

We are so thankful that Jeremy, Katie, and Penelope are a part of such a special, loving church family. We feel like a part of that family, too, because of the love you've shown us from the first time we visited years ago. Thank you and may God bless you all.

Hal and Laura Gargis

I want to thank you all for your continued prayers. Please continue to pray for me as I go through my treatments. With love,

Vickie Boston

Dear Pulaski Street,

Thank you, everyone, for all for the lovely cards and prayers.

Judy Newton

~Margaret Hammond also greatly appreciates the concern for her sister, Judy Newton.

YOUTH NEWS

June 14th-19th – Mid South Youth Camp! If you are planning on going to MSYC, let me know!

June 22nd-26th – Make Me a Servant Week! If you have any work that teens can handle, let our intern, Josh Ross, know. Also, if you are a teen participating in the service this week and plan to go on the rewards trip, you need to let Josh know ASAP!

June 23rd – Mornings for Moms! In the FB from 9:30-11:30 a.m.

June 24th – Widows and Widowers Dinner! In the fellowship building at 5:30 p.m. Come and enjoy a meal as our teens serve you!

July 5th-10th – Horizons! Let me know ASAP if you plan on going!

Since I arrived here this summer, I have noticed that many of you have come up with many nicknames for me. I don't mind them at all and actually think they are hilarious! Thus far I have heard the following (and forgive me if I spell them wrong): "J-Rossy" by Megan Shadrack; Jeremy has called me "Jish" since last summer; "Joshy" seems to be going around thanks to Penelope, but I have to say that my favorite name is "Josh Rocks," compliments of Mr. Duke Donnelly! I think it is a very fitting name! But it brings me to the question of "What's in a name?"

Whenever I would leave the house, my dad always said, "Remember, you're a Ross." Those words would resonate in my head when I got in trouble at school or anything else my dad wouldn't have me to do. He would say this because, whatever I did, wherever I would go, I would leave an impression. What does this mean to us? In the community, some may identify you as a Christian or a member at Pulaski Street. Holding that title just means we have to hold a good reputation. In our daily walk, remember, you're a Christian!

Let your light shine, Josh

PLACED MEMBERSHIP

On Sunday morning, June 7, it was announced that MIKE and AMANDA KEILL have placed their membership here at Pulaski Street. Mike and Amanda have a two-year-old son, Mitchell.
