VOLUME 26, NUMBER 32

August 13, 2015

The Leftovers

At the risk of appearing snobbish or ungrateful, I've got a confession to make: I don't like leftovers, i.e. cold food that is in need of being reheated. I always have the best of intentions to pull last night's meal out of the refrigerator, throw it in the microwave, nuke it, and consume it, but I fail to do so time and time again. Now, don't get me wrong. I've eaten my fair share of leftovers, but I can't honestly say that I enjoy eating leftovers. The food never seems to taste or look the same. It lacks something.

With respect to your Christian walk, do you realize that God is not interested in your leftovers? In fact, Jesus says that we are to "seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness" (Matt. 6:33, emphasis added). Among other things, this means that God should come first in every aspect of our lives. Indeed, we should NOT give God our leftover love (Matt. 22:37-38), time (Eph. 5:18), thoughts (Phil. 4:8), service (Gal. 5:13-14), or money (Prov. 3:9; 1 Cor. 16:2; 2 Cor. 8-9). In the mind of God, such leftovers lack something.

Being content with giving God the leftovers reveals something about the person who has this attitude. John said, "We love because He first loved us" (1 John 4:9, emphasis added). God loved us all so much in the midst of our sin that He took the initiative by sending His Son into the world to die in our place (John 3:16; Rom. 5:8). God gave us His very best; in return, He expects the same. Indeed, contentment in giving God the leftovers exposes an ungrateful, selfish attitude.

Leftovers are fine when it comes to nourishing our physical bodies. At times, leftovers are unavoidable, even necessary. However, with respect to God and our spirituality, a life of leftovers is unacceptable, especially when we take into account the example of His Son (cf. Phil. 2:5-11).

PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED

TRAVIS MAYFIELD is scheduled for a cornea transplant on September 17. Many of you may remember that Travis's eye was injured a few years ago, and he had a cornea transplant at that time. He is now in need of another transplant. Please remember Travis as he is treated for pain and discomfort that will likely persist until the surgery can take place. 4 N. Bradley Road, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

PAM SNIDER is recovering from surgery she had on Monday, August 3, for two wrist fractures. She also has a broken nose and rib; she was injured in a recent fall. 5253 Waynesboro Hwy., Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

WAYNE SNIDER was treated at Maury Regional on Wednesday, August 5, for dehydration. 703 Lloyd St., L'burg.

WELLNESS CLASS

NANCY REEDY, a member here at Pulaski Street, is a Registered Nurse and a Tennessee Health Ambassador. She is able to offer a Wellness Class free of charge for us. The class normally costs $40. We have decided to provide the physical space to hold this class. The class focuses on self-reflection and stress reduction to improve overall physical, mental and spiritual health. Health-related issues including, but not limited to, blood pressure, smoking cessation, diabetes, weight control, addictions, or anxiety can be addressed.

Nancy is also utilizing the course for her own personal health and would love to be able to get to know the women better here at Pulaski Street while serving them with the gift of knowledge she has regarding health and wellness. Please call Nancy at 629-0007 for more information.

MEMORIAL

In lieu of flowers, a donation has been given to the Pulaski Street Church of Christ Youth Group in memory of CHRIS HAGAN.

C.I.A. (CHRISTIANS IN ACTION)

(Formerly known as the Handyman Servant Project)

The program formerly known as the Handyman Servant Project is being re-launched. To clear up any confusion about the purpose of this program, please take note of the following:

- This program was never intended to be a "deacon only" program.
- Anyone can participate and/or help bring needs or projects to the program.
- Needs and projects are not limited to physical labor.
- Contact Shayne Adams or call the church office with any needs/projects, or leave a note in the box in the foyer.
- Needs/projects will be assessed and the best determination made as to how/if we can help.

What a great summer! Summer is certainly a special time of year for a youth group. There is more time to go on trips, spend time with friends, and, through those opportunities, grow closer to God! Here's a quick rundown of just some of the things that we were able to do this summer:

- Play with the kids at the North Alabama Christian Children's Home
- Throw pies/get pied thru the peanut butter drive (AWESOME WORK!!!)
- Go to Mid-South Youth Camp (multiple weeks, if your name is Sam)
- Go to Fall Creek Falls Bible Camp (NO SHORTS ALLOWED!)
- Paint playground equipment, clean up yards, visit folks, and serve at the Widows and Widowers Dinner during Make Me a Servant Week
- Help out/attend Mornings for Moms
- Horizons at Freed-Hardeman University
- Mission trip to Inez, KY (or, if you're Nelly, a "missing trip")
- Songs of Summer
- Whitewater Rafting
- Day Camp

There are certainly more things that could go on this list, but you get the idea. We have been busy, and it has been awesome! Thanks to you, PSYG, for making summer 2015 the best one yet! Until next time,

Jeremy
