Closing it out

For those of you that care much about the sports world, you probably know that the Golden State Warriors just became the NBA Western Conference Champions by coming back from being down three games to one against the Oklahoma City Thunder. Their backs were against the wall. After setting an NBA record for wins in the regular season, if they were going to make it to the NBA finals, they had to win three straight games. That is exactly what they did. It wasn't easy, I'm sure. It has been done before, but not with frequency. They were in a tough spot, but they did what they had to do to reach the NBA finals.

What do we do when find ourselves in a tough spot? All too often, we may simply give up. We may find our backs against the wall, and instead of pushing through, we just quit. That simply is not in the profile of a committed Christian, though! The founding fathers of our faith that we read about in the New Testament certainly had plenty of times where it would have been understandable if they had just given in. But they didn't! We shouldn't either. So, if you are facing a difficult situation in life right now, keep going! If you aren't in the midst of hardship right now, it certainly isn't that far away...that's just the way life works. When hard times come, focus on the cross and be determined to come out of the situation with your ultimate goal, heaven, still attainable!

Until next time, JEREMY
