The Domino Effect

As a child, I never played dominos, but I played with dominos. There is something truly satisfying about setting dominos up in a long row or some elaborate design, tipping the first domino, and watching the chain reaction as each domino falls and topples the one next to it. Such depicts to some extent how one thought leads to another, how one act leads to another, how one decision continues to bear results, or how one person impacts another. A domino effect can be either positive or negative, and the Bible records its fair share of domino effects.

The first domino effect recorded in Scripture is found in Genesis 3. Satan tempted Eve, and then Eve deceived Adam (Gen. 3:1-6). A chain of consequences followed Adam and Eve's fall (Gen. 3:7-24). In fact, what transpired in the Garden of Eden continues to affect humanity today, not the least of which is physical death (Rom. 5:12). In a sense, the dominos that fell in the beginning started a chain reaction that continues in the present.

God, however, had in place a plan to reverse the curse of the first domino effect. In 1 Corinthians 15:12-19, we read of a hypothetical domino effect. The first domino in this instance is a crucified Christ who was not raised from the dead. In this passage, the apostle Paul highlights a chain of undesired consequences. If Christ has not been raised from the dead, then our preaching is pointless, our faith is futile, our souls are saturated with sin, our loved ones who died in Christ will remain buried, and our future is hopeless. If we must begin with a non-resurrected Christ, then we are all in trouble.

Fortunately, in 1 Corinthians 15:20, Paul emphatically states: "But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep." With this as our beginning point, the domino effect looks much different. Since Christ has been raised from the dead, our preaching is powerful, our faith is effective, our souls have been set free from sin, our loved ones who died in Christ will not stay buried, and our future is hopeful. Jesus can undo what Adam did for those who put their faith in Him (1 Cor. 15:21-22; cf. Rom. 5:12-21).

A SERVICE OPPORTUNITY - LUNCHESES FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

During the month of July, Pulaski Street is providing lunch once a week for children who live in neighborhoods/areas zoned for Ingram Sowell. We will be making 320 lunch bags. Everyone is welcome to help!

There will be a collection box in the foyer from now until the end of July for the following: pre-packaged fruit cups, snack crackers, pop tarts, granola bars, and individual bags of chips. (Health department regulations do not permit homemade items; all food must be prepackaged.) New sign-up sheets are now posted in the back classroom hallway. Volunteers may sign up to prepare lunch bags, to deliver them, and/or to help for a particular week. Volunteers may sign up for multiple weeks and multiple tasks.

We will be bagging lunches each Tuesday in July at 6 p.m. in the fellowship building. On each Wednesday in July, we will meet at the building at 11 a.m. to load the lunches into the church van, and we will all go together to hand them out in the above-mentioned neighborhoods. At last report, more men were needed to volunteer to hand out lunches.

If you have any questions, please contact Brittany Evans.

2 Corinthians 12:9- "And He said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness.' Therefore most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me."

This verse makes two things very clear for us:

First, we all will face trials that will tear us down to the point that we ask God to do something.

Second, that is when we will become our strongest through God's grace.

I want you to think of a situation that you have gone through where you felt hopeless – a time when you felt like the world was falling down around you. Now that you have that time in mind, ask yourself, Did I learn from that situation?

We are told in Matthew 5:11 that we are blessed when we are reviled and persecuted. We may not always feel like we are being blessed, but that is the time when we have to really depend on God to help guide us through the storms of life.

One of the best things we can do as Christians when we feel like we are being overcome by the storms of life is to pray. We are shown many things that we can receive from prayer in the New Testament. One of those things is "strength for the inner man" (Eph. 3:16).

So I leave you with a challenge: The next time you go through the storms of life, remember to turn to God. Pray to Him. He will be there to guide you.
