VOLUME 28, NUMBER 23

Withstand the Ridicule

The first surviving visual representation of Jesus' crucifixion comes from graffiti scratched on a stone in a guardroom on Palatine Hill near the Circus Maximus in Rome. (Open your web browser and Google "The Alexamenos Graffito.") It is a crude drawing of a man with the head of a donkey hanging on a cross. To the left of the cross another man raises his hand in a gesture of worship. Scribbled underneath are the words "Alexamenos worships his God."

Before the onset of Christianity, the Jews had been accused of onolatry, i.e., worshipping a donkey. Among Greco-Roman writers, the reason for this association between the Jews and a donkey is varied; nevertheless, it's clear that this defamation was eventually transferred to Jesus. After all, early Christianity was popularly perceived as a variant of Judaism. As repulsive as the picture is to Christians today, it does convey how contemptible a crucified Lord was to pagan thinking (cf. 1 Cor. 1:23).

Increasingly so, Christians in America can sympathize with Alexamenos, who had to endure mockery for worshipping a crucified man. To be sure, the situation in America today is nowhere near as dire as it was in first-century Rome, but no one can deny that the demonization of Christianity and its adherents has intensified over the last few decades. It's difficult to field the taunts, criticisms, and insults of others, but we must withstand the ridicule. Jesus did, and He expects us to do so as well (1 Pet. 2:21-25).

Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Matthew 5:11-12

Closing it out...

What a great VBS we have had! Our numbers have been good, we have had lots of visitors, and we have been able to learn great lessons! VBS is so great!

There have been so many people working hard to make this year's VBS the best it could be. At various points in time last week there would be upwards of 40 people at a time at the church building decorating, working on lessons, and otherwise planning for VBS. As announced this Sunday morning, after trying to add up the number of hours people had spent working on getting ready for VBS this year, the number I came up with was 1300 hours, though I'm sure it's on the low end for an estimate! So many people sacrificed so much time to make Vacation Bible School special, and I would like to thank you!

Whether it is Vacation Bible School or some other activity, the things that bring our church family together to try and reach out to those in our community make me thankful to be a part of a place as special as Pulaski Street Church of Christ. Thank you so much for your example not only to our community as a whole, but also, on a personal level, to my family! We love you all!

Until next time... Jeremy
