The Present

If you are a Christian, why did you decide to become a Christian? In hearing that question asked before and hearing people respond to that question, there is one of two answers that I would expect to hear from you. The first response would be "I did that to be forgiven," and the second would be "I did that to go to heaven."

What's interesting to me is not so much what we usually say in response to that question, but what we don't say. To be sure, our two common responses are huge. We can't begin to explain how wonderful the blessings of forgiveness and the hope of heaven are, but there's another possible response, one that we rarely hear. Imagine someone responding with these words: "I did that to dedicate my life to Jesus. Once I realized all that Jesus had done for me, I wanted to give my life to Him. I fell in love with Jesus for the great gift He gave me, and I wanted to spend the rest of my life living out that love to Him—living for Him and living like Him."

Think about the direction our responses tend to go. We look to the past and say, "I became a Christian to have my sins forgiven." We look to the future and say, "I became a Christian to go to heaven." What do we usually not think about? The present.

In Romans 6:4-5, Paul takes the Roman Christians back to their past conversion at baptism and highlights what that means for them in the present: "We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life." Why were these Romans baptized into Christ's death? To go to heaven? While true, that's not Paul's focus here. His concern is the present, not the future. They were forgiven of their sins in order that they may "walk in newness of life" in the here and now.

In 1 John 3:2-3, John comes from the other direction. John looks to the future: "Beloved . . . what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like, because we shall see him as he is." John points out what will happen in the future, but he ends by highlighting the implications of that future for the present: "And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure." Those people who have the hope of heaven and of seeing Jesus one day should be living holy lives in the present.

From a consideration of these two passages, here's what I want us to put into our hearts: Those people who met Jesus at conversion (past) and who will see Jesus in heaven (future) are to reflect Jesus on earth (present). If you've had your sins forgiven in the past, and if you have the hope of seeing Jesus in the future, then you should live for Jesus and live like Jesus in the present.

JERRI HARRIS came forward on Sunday evening, August 12. Jerri stated that she has become busy and distracted by other things in life. She requested prayers that she will be able to refocus and put God first. 24 Hardin Loop Rd., West Point, TN 38486.

THANK YOU

Thank you to the Pulaski Street church family for the abundance of birthday cards Virginia Willey received for her 100th birthday. She received more cards than she ever has in her life, and most of them were from Pulaski Street. Virginia is doing very well at this time. Thank you all!

STILL WORTH A LOT

A well-known speaker started off a seminar by holding up currency. In the room of 200, he asked, “Who would like this twenty-dollar bill?” Hands started going up. He said, “I am going to give this $20 to one of you, but first, let me do this.”

He crumpled it. He then asked, “Who still wants it?” The same hands were up.

“Well,” he said, “What if I do this?” He dropped it on the ground and started to grind it into the floor with his shoe. He picked it up, now crumpled and dirty. “Now who still wants it?” he asked. Still the hands stayed up.

“My friends, we have all learned a very valuable lesson. No matter what I did to the money, you still wanted it because it did not decrease in value. It was still worth twenty dollars.

“Many times in our lives, we are dropped, crumpled, and ground into the dirt by bad decisions and unfortunate circumstances that come our way. We feel like we are worthless. But no matter what has happened or what will happen, you will never lose your value: dirty or clean, crumpled or finely creased, you are still priceless to those who love you.

“The worth of our lives comes not in what we do or who we know, but by who we are. You are special – don’t ever forget it!”

*So God created man in His own image;
in the image of God He created him;
male and female He created them.*

Closing it out...

It has been said that only two things in life are certain: death and taxes! But, there is one thing that is even more certain to happen than either of those two: God will love us. In the book of Lamentations, the writer describes the love of God in a beautiful way that brings hope to our lives:

“The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is thy faithfulness. ‘The Lord is my portion,’ says my soul, ‘therefore I will hope in Him.’”
Lamentations 3:22-24

Out of all of the things that we can count on in life, NONE of them compares to the love that God has for us. It will not end! In that, we can find hope!

Until next time,
Jeremy

PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED

Addresses are provided when possible in case you’d like to send cards.

MARTHA BELEW got a good report from last week’s CT scan. The doctor was optimistic about the treatment she has received. 805 Daniel Drive, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

KYM BILBREY BROWN transferred to NHC Place at Cool Springs last week following surgery. As of Tuesday, August 14, she was still there in Rm. 1103, but she expects to return home later this week. 105 Graves Drive, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

DON COOPER had surgery on Monday, August 13, to place two stents in his legs. The procedure went well, but complications occurred on Tuesday morning, and Don was airlifted back to Vanderbilt UMC. At print time, he was back in surgery at Vanderbilt. P.O. Box 361, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

ALENA DOWLEN was examined and released from STRHS on Sunday, August 12, due to ongoing gall bladder problems, and it was determined that her gall bladder will have to be removed soon. Prayers are appreciated as the surgery will be risky due to her pregnancy. 322 Deller Street, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

COY GREEN is improving after last week’s surgery to remove a brain tumor. He will be undergoing rehab/physical therapy before returning home. NO VISITORS OR PHONE CALLS, please.

NANCY REEDY had CT scans last week. Unfortunately, results showed that the chemotherapy is no longer working to reduce the tumor on her pancreas. She was scheduled to see a research nurse on Wednesday, August 15, to decide what treatment may be done next. Please continue to pray for Nancy. 2471 Brandi Lane, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

RICKEY HOOD, brother of Martha Britton and uncle of Denise Hughes, had heart valve replacement last week at Vanderbilt UMC. We are thankful to report that the surgery went well, and Rickey is continuing to improve each day. As of Tuesday, August 14, he was still in VUMC, Rm. 5024. NO VISITORS, please. Vanderbilt University Medical Center, 1211 Medical Center Drive, Nashville, TN 37232.

LINDA MCANALLY, sister of Judy Butler, had returned home from the hospital to recover from heart stent surgery following a recent heart attack. She began to have a build-up of fluid, so she was taken back to St. Thomas on Monday, August 13. She expected to remain hospitalized for a couple of days. 499 Hudson Road, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

Please continue to pray for James and Mary Louisa Belew, Carolyn Kilburn, Michael Mashburn, Thelma McCloud, Connie Powell, Bertha Shelton, Mary Williams, Mary Wilson, Loulie Brown, Judy Bryant, Mickey Dunn, Dalton Gulley, Willie Guthrie, Rodney Reed, Shannon Williams, Jackie Wilson, and all those recently mentioned.

My flesh and my heart may fail,
but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
