Don't Let a Crisis Go to Waste!

In 1942, C.S. Lewis published a Christian apologetic novel entitled The Screwtape Letters. Written as a satire, the book takes the form of a series of letters from a superior demon named Screwtape to his nephew Wormwood, a junior tempter. The uncle's mentorship addresses the nephew's responsibility in securing the condemnation of a British man known only as the "patient." Screwtape imparts wisdom about how to tempt, confuse, and ultimately destroy this hapless soul. In view of the coronavirus crisis, a preacher by the name of Aaron Michael Nielsen wrote the following as a play on Lewis's work:

My Dear Wormwood,

Plagues are a most effective weapon given to us by our father below. Normally, Christians are quite comfortable in receiving the dreaded sacraments and gathering in their prayers and other heinous Arts. But if you can stir up a hysteria by means of a plague so that they cut themselves off from our Enemy's gifts to them, the torment of isolation will drive them to despair and season them quite deliciously much to our delight.

Get them to forget about their usual practices of prayer, fasting, and alms giving, and encourage them to become gluttons, slanderers, and lose all regard for their neighbor, thinking only about themselves and their immediate needs and storing up treasures which we can send moth and rust to destroy further sweetening their torment.

If you can, help them to redefine their usual words like "church" and "fellowship" and "ministry" so that they feel comfortable cutting themselves off from our Enemy's care, and they can be tempted all the more.

Yes, Wormwood, a plague is a tried and true method of taking their eyes off our Enemy and getting them to worship their own bodies. A most desirable position for we tempters. Never let a good crisis go to waste!

Your Affectionate Uncle,
Screwtape

Satires shock us. It's weird reading "Enemy" and having to think of God, but that would certainly be Satan's perspective. Seeing things from Satan's point of view (or, in this case, his minion's point of view) has a way of helping us fully appreciate what's at stake. It's my conviction that nothing subhuman (e.g., tornadoes, hurricanes, viruses, pain, suffering, etc.) is intrinsically evil, but such things can be instrumentally evil. Screwtape is essentially advising Wormwood on how to use a pandemic for evil.

Satan will never allow a crisis to go to waste, and God won't either. In view of the present pandemic, consider the following differences between Satan's and God's desires:

- If Satan wants us to look down, God wants us to look up. Just because we can't assemble as a church family on Sundays and Wednesdays doesn't mean that worshiping God has been rendered impossible. We can worship God from anywhere (John 4:21-24), and God would love nothing more than for this pandemic to draw us closer to Him.
- If Satan desires to tear us apart, God desires to bring us together. Yes, God's people are distant from one another right now, but that doesn't mean we have to remain disconnected. Technology helps us here. We can continue to stay in touch with one another, care for one another, rejoice with one another, and weep with one another (Rom. 12:15; 1 Cor. 12:24-26). Several of our church members have been doing some drive-by visits. Barring a complete shutdown, these drive-by visits will only increase in the days ahead. God would love nothing more than for this pandemic to draw us closer to one another.
- If Satan yearns to bring the worst out of us, God desires to bring the best out of us. During this time, Christians should be showing the world a certain joy, contentment, and thankfulness that aren't dependent upon good circumstances (Acts 5:40-42; 16:26; 1 Peter 1:6-8; Phil. 4:11-13; 1 Thess. 5:18). God would love nothing more than for this pandemic to refine in us those qualities exemplified by His Son.

None of us will be the same after this pandemic has ended. We will all be changed, but let's make sure that it's a change for the better. Don't let this crisis go to waste!

SYMPATHY

We extend Christian love and sympathy to Mack Evans on the death of his cousin, HAROLD EVANS. Arrangements were incomplete at print time, but the funeral will be held in Florida. Condolences may be sent to Mack and Shirley and family at 1265 East Gaines Street., Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that He might be glorified. Isaiah 61:3

INFO and REMINDERS

1. At least through April 5, we will not assemble at our building for services or activities. For the next two Sundays, March 29 and April 5, at 10:30 a.m., we will be live streaming a worship service from our auditorium using Facebook. The elders, Jacob, and Jeremy will be leading the worship service.
2. We have personal communion kits (PCKs) on hand at the church office. Plan to drop by anytime between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. this Friday, March 27, to pick up your portion of PCKs.
3. Your weekly contribution can be mailed to the church office at 247 Pulaski Street, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464, or it can be delivered to the church office between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. on any weekday.
4. Pulaski Street's Ladies Day will be rescheduled for a date in 2021.
5. The Secret Sisters program is on hold for now. Don't worry about getting out to purchase or deliver any gifts right now. Once we are all assembling at church again, we will resume the program, and we can continue past May if need be.
6. We are helping provide food for Ingram Sowell students while school is out. At this time, donating money is the best way to help with this project. You can drop that by the church office between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. weekdays.
7. You can still order your SENT theme T-shirts through this link: www.pulaskistreet.org/shirt/, or call the church office (931-762-5161). The deadline is April 1.
8. Graduates, remember to e-mail your photos and info to us soon.
9. Now is a great time to check on your fellow church members, family, and neighbors, especially the elderly, and see how you can help.

YOUTH NEWS

What would you have done differently if you knew it was coming? I guess that is a question that could be applied to all kinds of situations in life. From tragic events like storms and car wrecks to joyful moments like promotions or winning a giveaway, if we always knew what was coming, it would probably cause us to live our lives a little bit differently. But we can't know everything that the future holds.

What would you have done differently if you knew what the current COVID-19 pandemic was going to cause? Would you have visited your elderly neighbors and family members a few extra times? Would you have stocked up on bread, meat, milk, paper towels, toilet paper, hand sanitizer, soap, and "all things cleaning" before the rush? Certainly, there are things that most of us would've done differently had we known what was going to transpire. But we can't know everything that the future holds.

In times past and present, there are some things that we can know. I am reminded of Joseph, "that dreamer," as his brothers called him. Joseph, through his own dreams, saw that his family was going to bow down to him in the future. Through Pharaoh's dreams, Joseph executed a plan that saved nations from a severe famine. Because of the divine revelation, Joseph was able to see many things that were to come in the future. As for us, we can't know everything that the future holds.

Of course, there are numerous prophecies that we can read and see exact details of things that would happen hundreds and hundreds of years before the events took place. It can increase our faith to see how they unfolded exactly as they were foretold. But we aren't prophets, and we can't know everything that the future holds.

We can, however, know some things that the future holds. Most importantly, we know that we will either die or the Lord will return. When that happens, we will not have any more opportunities to make preparations. Sadly, so many people, even "Christians," live their lives as though they don't remember that they will be judged by their deeds! You see, if we knew that some tragic thing was going to transpire, we would do everything in our power to avoid being adversely affected by it. But WE DO know that the judgment is coming, and all too often, we don't do anything about it! Many choose to remain in sin and disregard the warnings from Scripture to keep our lives within the will of God.

No, we can't know everything that the future holds. But what are we going to do about the things that we know will happen in the future?

Until next time,
Jeremy Gargis

be patient in tribulation,
be constant in prayer.

PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED

As of Tuesday, March 24:

WILLODEAN CAMPBELL will be having iron infusions at some point, but the treatment will probably be delayed due to precautions related to the COVID-19 situation. 495 Kent St., Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

DONNA HELTON was hospitalized at STRHS last week with an upper respiratory infection. While hospitalized there, she fell and was airlifted to Centennial Medical Center with a brain bleed. As of Tuesday, March 24, there was no more bleeding on the brain, and she had tested negative for COVID-19. She expects to transfer to another facility for rehab sometime this week. 219 Waterloo St., Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

MICHAEL MASHBURN is home and will be undergoing IV antibiotic treatment for several more weeks. 250 Wesley Chapel Rd., Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

CHAD BROWN, father of Josie Brown and Mary Beth Brown, is scheduled for surgery on Monday, March 30, for blockages in both legs. This condition is very painful. 216 Admiral Circle, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

SHANNON COTTON, granddaughter of Jean Caperton (neighbor of Jean Parrish), is in Rm. 205 at Meadowbrook Nursing Home in Pulaski after a lengthy hospitalization with a respiratory illness. c/o Meadowbrook Nursing Home, 1245 E. College St., Pulaski, TN 38478.

NORA GIST, grandmother of Katelyn Romsdal, returned home on Monday, March 23, from a stay in Maury Regional with a brain bleed. An MRI indicated a spot that needs further investigation, and Mrs. Gist is to follow up with another MRI. 14 J.H. Bates Rd., Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

LINDA KELLEY, friend of Tommy and Patsy Lee, is battling pancreatic cancer. The past two weeks have been very difficult. The side effects from the chemotherapy have taken a toll on her. 610 William Street, St. Joseph, TN 38481.

EMMA MOORE, 12-year-old granddaughter of Barbara Weaver who attends our Ladies' Bible Class, has been diagnosed with eosinophilic esophagitis (EoE), which is a chronic, allergic inflammatory disease of the esophagus. In Emma's case, both her stomach and her esophagus are affected. She has been receiving nutrition through a feeding tube, and it is hoped that her stomach will heal over the next few weeks. Afterwards, they will attempt to identify which food(s) are causing her problems. 157 Lanning Rd., Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

Please continue to remember: Mary Louisa Belew, Lorene Chandler, Nell Dixon, Ruth Goff, Donna Marston, Thelma McCloud, Ruby Welch, Betty Marie Bailey, J.D. Conley, Phillip Gattis, Dustin Haltom, Martha Hampton, Kevin Huckaby, Linda Jenkins, Clifford Doyle Johnson, Linda Kelley, Keith Mattox, Jackie McCord, Macie Rose, Jay Thomas, and all those recently mentioned.

And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.
