The “Logic” of God’s Love

Romans 5:6-8 forms a single argument that demonstrates the abundant and absolute nature of God’s love for us. In my estimation, there’s a subtle irony in Paul’s argument. Paul is using logic to explain something that is ultimately incomprehensible (Eph. 3:18-19). We can break Paul’s argument down into three parts.

(1) Human love, at its best, will motivate a person to give his or her life for a truly “good” person (Rom. 5:7). The main point of vs. 7 is clear enough. Paul is using his words here to accentuate the love of God manifested in the cross of Christ by reminding us that the pinnacle of human love is giving of one’s life for a person with whom one is close—a spouse, a child, a sibling, a close friend, or a combat buddy. But Paul’s way of stating this point creates some confusion. What exactly is the difference between a “righteous person” and a “good person”? Some scholars do not make any distinction. On this view, the second could be clarifying the first by “softening” the assertion that a person would “scarcely” die for anyone else. Other scholars, however, do make a distinction. On this view, a “good person” would be one who has a stronger claim on one’s emotions than the “righteous person” of the first clause. While the “righteous person” would be one who is just and upright in his dealings and would therefore have some claim on our respect, the “good person” would be one for whom we have a strong personal attachment and for whom, therefore, we would be more willing to die.

In his book Written in Blood, Robert Coleman tells the story of a little boy whose sister needed a blood transfusion. The doctor explained that she had the same disease the boy had recovered from two years earlier. Her only chance for recovery was a transfusion from someone who had previously conquered the disease. Since the two children had the same rare blood type, the boy was the ideal donor.

"Would you give your blood to Mary?" the doctor asked. Johnny hesitated. His lower lip started to tremble. Then he smiled and said, "Sure, for my sister." Soon the two children were wheeled into the hospital room: Mary was pale and thin; Johnny was robust and healthy. Neither spoke, but when their eyes met, Johnny grinned. As the nurse inserted the needle into his arm, Johnny's smile faded. He watched the blood flow through the tube. When the ordeal was almost over, his voice, slightly shaky, broke the silence. "Doctor, when do I die?"

Only then did the doctor realize why Johnny had hesitated and why his lip had trembled when he'd agreed to donate his blood. He thought giving his blood to his sister meant giving up his life. In that brief moment, he'd made his great decision. Human beings will give their life for another, but it is who they will give their lives for that makes God’s love shine all the brighter.

(2) Christ, who was sent by God, did not die for “righteous” people, or even for “good” people, but for rebellious and undeserving people (vs. 6). In contrast to the very best of human love is God’s love. God sent His Son to die for helpless (vs. 6a), ungodly (vs. 6b), and sinful people (vs. 8). He died for His enemies (vs. 10). Who does that? Man doesn’t, but God does. Here’s an axiom to tuck away in your brain: “The less man deserves grace the greater God’s love is shown to be.” We were not worthy of Christ’s death. Not one of us deserved what Christ did for us by dying for us, and in that, we see the greatness of God’s love.

(3) Therefore, God’s love is far greater in its magnitude and dependability than even the greatest human love (vs. 8). With Paul’s argument, we not only get a glimpse at the grandeur of God’s love, but we are also confronted with the reality that we can never doubt God’s love for us.

THANK YOU

Thank you for your many acts of kindness. Thank you for the throw, the delicious meal, the wonderful singing, and Jacob's words at the service. She loved Pulaski Street.

In Christian love, Greg, Shannon, and Kate Yokley
(family of Martha Belew)

Words are not adequate to express our appreciation for how you loved and supported us through the recent events of LaVerne's illness and death. We are so grateful you were there offering your support by lifting us through the funeral visitation and funeral service.

Your gift to the Churches of Christ Disaster Relief in memory of LaVerne was a very special gesture, one she loved and supported herself. By remembering us, you helped to bolster us. Thanks for your thoughtfulness. Tim and Dawn Hammond

Pulaski Street Church of Christ,

The family of Marlene Swain acknowledges with grateful appreciation your kind expression of sympathy.

Thank you for sending the beautiful tribute blanket. Thank you also for the donation you made to help pay for funeral expenses. Our family appreciated your kindness and thoughtfulness. Anita Morrow and Family

To the ladies of Pulaski Street Church of Christ,

Thank you for organizing the food at the funeral home. The church has been a real blessing to us during this difficult time. We enjoyed the chicken tenders and the side dishes. Anita Morrow and Family

MEMORIAL

A donation has been given in memory of MARTHA BELEW to the Pulaski Street Church of Christ Pantry by Greg, Shannon, and Kate Yokley. This donation is in honor of those who sang at Martha's funeral and those who prepared the meal for the family afterward.

Closing it out...

The 30 of us that headed to Pigeon Forge, TN, this past weekend for Challenge Youth Conference (CYC) had a great time! The lessons were impactful. The singing was beautiful. We were all encouraged tremendously. We grew closer to one another. We had the opportunity with our group to discuss things with which we have been struggling. We prayed for one another. We are better for having been there!

The theme at CYC this year was "POWER," and we heard lessons regarding the power of the cross, the power of the Spirit, the power of the Word, and the all-encompassing power of God. The speakers, as always, challenged and uplifted us. Everything about the weekend was phenomenal! Mark your calendars!!! CYC 2021 will be February 26-28! All of our students in the 7th grade and up should come!

Until next time...

Jeremy Gargis

Graduates: we need your photos & info!

PRAYERS ARE REQUESTED

As of Tuesday, March 3:

WILLODEAN CAMPBELL has been having problems with anemia and blood loss. She is scheduled for an appointment with a hematologist in Huntsville, AL, on March 12. She was given two units of blood a few weeks ago, but her levels are gradually declining again. She continues to be very weak and hasn't been able to get out recently. 495 Kent St., Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

LORENE CHANDLER is home with home health care after spending a few days in St. Thomas Hospital last week. She's having issues with atrial fibrillation, which is being treated with medication. It was determined that the procedure she had last year in which clamps were placed to repair her leaking heart valve was unsuccessful; significant leaking is still occurring. Lorene will have more medical appointments soon. 413 Douglas Drive, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

DONNA MARSTON has been diagnosed with breast cancer. She will be undergoing four cycles of chemotherapy. Once the chemotherapy is complete, she will have surgery and reconstruction. 5 Ashley Court, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

MICHAEL MASHBURN was able to return home on Monday, March 2, from a stay in Vanderbilt UMC. He had surgery to repair another bleed on Saturday, February 29. 250 Wesley Chapel Rd., Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

JAMES WEEKS is home after an overnight stay at Maury Regional last week. He is recovering from pneumonia and an episode of atrial fibrillation. 297 Napier Rd., Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

BETTY MARIE BAILEY, cousin of Tim Clifton, was hospitalized last week at Vanderbilt with complications from a recent ostomy procedure. She is dealing with several other health issues as well. Cards may be sent to Betty in care of her daughter. c/o Denise Vermeulen, 500 Lindsley Rd., Lebanon, TN 37090.

CLIFFORD DOYLE JOHNSON, brother of Hazel Violet, has been diagnosed with throat cancer. He will be undergoing treatment in Huntsville, AL. 1842 Dunroamin Lane, Fayetteville, TN 37334.

EMMA MOORE, 12-year-old granddaughter of Barbara Weaver who attends our Ladies' Bible Class, is having issues with lack of appetite and weight loss. She was recently hospitalized at Vanderbilt related to these issues, and she will be having more tests soon.

TIM MCANALLY, nephew of Judy Butler, was still in Maury Regional, CCU, Rm. 563, as of Tuesday, March 3, with heart problems and pneumonia in both lungs. He is beginning to respond some, but he is still very sick. c/o Harold McAnally, 499 Hudson Rd., Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

JACKIE MCCORD, father of Cara Robertson, is scheduled for a cardiac ablation procedure on Thursday, March 5, at St. Thomas Hospital after continuing episodes of arrhythmia. 308 Ellingson, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

Please continue to remember Nell Dixon, Ruth Goff, Jean Harris, Leonard Kirk, Thelma McCloud, Ruby Welch, J.D. Conley, Shannon Cotton, Phillip Gattis, Dustin Haltom, Kevin Huckaby, Martha Hampton, Anne Crowder Hughes, Linda Kelley, Keith Mattox, Jay Thomas, and all those recently mentioned.

Prayers are requested for all those affected by the tornado that struck Tennessee on Tuesday, March 3. Two families suffering with injuries and loss caused by this storm are the Collins family and the Mynatt family, both of Cookeville.
