VOLUME 34, NUMBER 36

September 7, 2023

Mack Evans wrote the following words when he was preparing to lead the opening prayer during a past Sunday morning worship service at Pulaski Street. This was written and delivered prior to the addition of our two newest elders, Mark and Shane, whom Mack certainly would have included in his prayer.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
from everlasting to everlasting,
the only true and living God:

We are thankful this day
for every good gift given,
for every blessing sent,
for every trial that steels our faith,
and for all the forgiveness we don't deserve.

We are thankful for our elders,
Biff, Bob, Eric, Tim, [Mark, and Shane],
who prayerfully labor to serve you and shepherd this congregation.

We are thankful for our deacons
who work continually for the church.

We are thankful for our ministers,
Jacob, Jeremy, and Rodolfo,
who labor diligently to proclaim Thy word,
who minister to this church,
and whose impact upon this church and community
will never be fully known this side of eternity.

We are thankful for the family of God,
our brothers and sisters in Christ
who worship at this place,
[and we pray that this family]
remains strong and of one spirit, striving to do Thy will.

Mack Evans

Closing it out:
In the high school class on Wednesday nights, we have been studying some minor prophets recently. Samuel taught through the book of Malachi while he was here this summer and did an excellent job! We are now about to finish up the book of Amos. Amos has long been one of my favorite Old Testament characters, and this study has only solidified that! He was a man who was eaten up with righteousness and justice, and he didn’t let the naysayers discourage him and his message from God!

Much of the book has to do with the iniquities of Israel, but as it is coming to a close, he focuses on their future restoration and blessings from God. The last verse of the book reads, “‘I will plant them on their land, and they shall never again be uprooted out of the land that I have given them,’ says the Lord your God.” Though Jesus had not come at that time, this blessing points forward to Him. When we recognize and submit to the Savior, even if difficult times come, we belong to God, and we will not be uprooted!

Until next time...
Jeremy Gargis
