Hearing & Obeying

Robert Kupferschmid (have fun pronouncing that last name) was an 81-year-old with no flying experience. Due to a tragic emergency on one occasion, he was forced to fly an airplane. On June 17, 1998, he and his 52-year-old pilot friend, Wesley Sickle, were flying from Indianapolis to Muncie, Indiana. During the flight, the pilot slumped over and died at the controls. The Cessna 172 single-engine plane began to nose-dive, and Kupferschmid grabbed the controls. He got on the radio and pleaded for help.

Nearby were two pilots who heard the call. Mount Comfort was the closest airport, and the two pilots gave Kupferschmid a steady stream of instructions of climbing, steering, and—the scariest part—landing. The two experienced pilots circled the runway three times before this somewhat frantic and totally inexperienced pilot was ready to attempt the landing.

Emergency vehicles were called out and ready for what seemed like an approaching disaster. Witnesses said the plane's nose nudged the center line and bounced a few times before the tail hit the ground. The Cessna ended up in a patch of soggy grass next to the runway. Amazingly, Kupferschmid was not injured.

This inexperienced "pilot" heard and followed the instructions he was given as if his life depended on it—and it did. Imagine if Kupferschmid decided to ignore or disobey the instructions he was given. He probably would have ended up worse than injured.

Now imagine what would take place in the lives of people if they listened to and obeyed God's instructions with the same earnestness (Jas. 1:22-25). To be sure, God isn't looking to save us from physical death; He is looking to save us from spiritual death (Rom. 6:23). He's the expert on navigating this life to ensure eternal life. It only makes sense to take His Word seriously and allow it to steer our lives.

"I know, O LORD, that the way of man is not in himself, that it is not in man who walks to direct his steps."

A New Leaf or a New Life?

Nature forms us. Sin deforms us. Schools inform us. Prisons reform us. But only Christ transforms us.

The Bible says, "If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new" (2 Corinthians 5:17).

A Christian is not just somebody who has become nice; he has become new. He doesn't just turn over a new leaf; he receives a new life. A Christian is not like a tadpole that has become a frog. A Christian is more like a frog who has received the kiss of grace and become a prince. We are changed radically and dramatically.

"What do you want to be when you grow up?" "What will they put on your headstone?" Such questions accompany us all along the road of life. We want to have significance, to serve a purpose, to matter. Christians should take life seriously.

Life is a journey toward eternity. We are on a path. "The path of the just is like the shining sun, that shines ever brighter unto the perfect day" (Proverbs 4:18). There are only two destinations (Matthew 7:13-14). This world is not our home (Hebrews 11:13-16).

Ready for a new life?

As you can see from the dates listed above, some things that we do each summer are finalized. What I had hoped would work out for the mission trip is not going to work. I am still working on finding something we can do, and it may turn into several shorter outings during the month of July. I will update the list of upcoming events as soon as possible, so please check the bulletin each week!

I am excited about all of the activities that will be taking place over the next several months, and it is my hope and prayer that you will take advantage of these and be able to grow because of them!

Until next time, Jeremy
