VOLUME 32, NUMBER 49

December 9, 2021

Thank You

I want, even need, to thank my church family here at Pulaski Street for a variety of things, so for my last article in 2021, here is a list of things for which I am grateful regarding my P Street people:

- Your love for and dedication to God and each other (Matt. 22:34-40).
- Your generosity toward our collective work or those in need, whether it's giving money, food, clothes, blankets, toys, or time (Acts 20:35).
- Your expressions of concern toward me and others, whether it's prayers, cards, calls, texts, visits, or food (1 Cor. 12:26).
- Your commitment to assemble and worship the God who created and redeemed us.
- Your tangible love for my wife and kids.
- Your patience and encouragement as I mature as a minister of God's Word.
- Your patience and encouragement as I mature as a minister to God's people.
- Your patience when I manage to preach to or beyond 11:30 a.m., which occurs just about every Sunday.
- Your (the elders) concern for each sheep in the flock (Heb. 13:17).
- Your (the elders) concern for my whole person (3 John 2) and my whole life.
- Your (the elders) constructive criticism and timely encouragement.
- Your (the elders) willingness to entertain my suggestions and ideas for improving or enriching our ministry.
- Your (the deacons) dedication to your respective roles in serving our church family and community (1 Tim. 3:13).
- Your (the teachers) commitment to and creativity in teaching God's children God's Word.
- Your (Jeremy, our youth minister) heartfelt concern for our youth and the constant support you provide me as a brother in Christ and friend.
- Your (Katie, Jeremy's wife) willingness to look after my three kids at the drop of a hat while I was laid up in a hospital due to a heart attack.
- Your (Melanie) fierce commitment to proper grammar and correct information in the bulletin, undying sympathy for those who are struggling or grieving, and seeming enthusiasm to serve as a sounding board on a regular basis.
- Your (Joan Childress and Judy Heffington) tireless efforts in adding to and improving the church's library.
- Your (Brittany, my wife) help in parenting, navigating ministry, and recovering from a heart attack.

2021 was a relatively difficult year for me personally, but it was made easier and more bearable by being a member of this loving church family. I refuse to take for granted the privilege and blessing of preaching for this congregation of God's people. May God bless each one of you as 2021 moves into the rearview mirror and 2022 moves into the windshield.
