VOLUME 33, NUMBER 22

June 16, 2022

A Father's Presence

John Trent, a family therapist, shared two letters given to him by a third-grade teacher ("Promise to Be There," Christian Parenting Today, pg. 24). The letters were part of an assignment her students completed. (The words are unedited for spelling, grammar, and punctuation.) The first letter read:

Dear Dad, I love it when you take me on dates! I like it when you play baseball with me, miniature golf with me, and watch movies with me. I really aprisheate it! I like it when you tell jokes to me. I like it when you hug me and kiss me. Daddy, I love!

Four seats away from the first letter writer sat another little girl. Here's what her letter said:

Dear Daddy, I love you so much. When you are going to come see me agen? I miss you very much. I love it when you take me to the pool. When am I going to get to spend the night at your house? Have you ever seen my house before? I want to see what your house looks like. Do you? Whand am I going to get to see you agene? I love you, Daddy.

One letter is from a child whose father knows what it means to be there. The second is from a child whose father, for whatever reason, has chosen not to be there. It's hard to read that second letter.

The Bible underscores the important role that fathers play in the lives of their children (Eph. 6:4; Col. 3:21; cf. 1 Thess. 2:11-12). No father should underestimate the profound influence that he has upon the spiritual and emotional well-being of his children. God knows we need a lot less letters like that second one in this world.

we need your updated info

We had scheduled photography for a new church directory to take place during 2020. Unfortunately, the church directory company that we have used for the past several years was severely affected by the pandemic and has now gone out of business permanently.

We do intend to have a new directory in the future. Meanwhile, we are updating our roster information, and we need your info. Please pick up information request forms from the round table in the foyer, fill them out, and return them to Melanie or any of the office staff at your convenience.

Of course, you may also send the requested information by e-mail or text message if you prefer.

thank you

Dear Pulaski Street Church Family,

Thank you to the elders, Jacob, and the congregation for all the prayers, cards, visits, food, and the beautiful gift shared with us during this difficult time. Mother was thankful to be a member of Pulaski Street. Your kindness was a blessing as my parents left this world together, just as it should have been after 72 years of marriage. We loved them and will always. They will be missed.

Blessings, Debbie Hillin, Amanda Rachford, and Julie Hillin

Thanks for your cards, calls, well wishes, and the letter from the elders. Thank you for being so kind.

Becky Holder

Hello, Ladies,

I want to say thank you for the knit hats that you have made for the cancer patients. I am just finishing the worst part of my chemo and have worn a couple of your hats. They are super cute and keep my head warm. My chemo treatments were split between 100 Oaks and Belle Meade. Belle Meade is where the nurses pointed out the hats and were very encouraging when I asked if I could take one. Thank you for your time and generosity! I still have infusions through the end of the year, so they will be loved for a long time to come.

Kathy Benner (Fairview, TN)

FYI: On the envelope of this thank-you note was written:
“ATTN: Ladies with mad knitting skills.”

Closing it out:

The full swing of summer is upon us! If nothing else had me convinced of that, then I was certainly reminded when I looked at the daily calendar on my desk and it was still on May 27th! It’s one of the kinds of calendars that you peel off a page for each day, and each page has some kind of fact or bit of trivia on it.

The last two and a half weeks got away from me, and I hadn’t kept up with it! When we get busy, that kind of thing can happen!

Sometimes we may get too busy to give our relationship with God the time that it deserves. Thankfully, most of what has kept me so busy recently has been the youth group and VBS. Certainly, that isn’t always the case.

Are you too busy for God? Or, are you staying busy for Him?

Until next time...Jeremy Gargis
