Truth Teller

Welcome to 2024! This past Sunday I introduced our new theme for the new year: "Truth Teller." A wise Solomon observed, "Buy truth, and do not sell it; buy wisdom, instruction, and understanding" (Proverbs 23:23). Truth is so valuable and vital in many areas of inquiry, like practicing medicine or prosecuting a criminal case, but we are concerned this year with the truth that matters most, i.e., spiritual or religious truth. The source of such truth is Scripture (John 17:17), and Scripture declares that the truth that matters most is objective (2 Timothy 3:16-17), absolute (Psalm 119:89), and attainable (John 8:31-32; Ephesians 5:17). Below is a monthly breakdown for this year's theme:

January	The Truth About Truth
February	Traits of a Truth Teller
March	Telling the Truth About the Beginning
April	Telling the Truth About Sin
May	Telling the Truth About Grace
June	Telling the Truth About Faith
July	Telling the Truth About Baptism
August	Telling the Truth About Christ's Church
September	Telling the Truth About Worship
October	Telling the Truth About Gender Roles
November	Telling the Truth About Death
December	Telling the Truth About the End

Contrary to popular belief, it really does matter what one believes and practices in religion (Matthew 7:21-23). It is just not the case, as claimed today in the religious world at large, that one's religious beliefs do not really matter so long as one is sincere. If the truth that matters most is objective, absolute, and attainable, then it is transferable (1 Corinthians 15:1-3). It is something that can be communicated to others and received by others. This world has enough mythmakers; this world needs more truth tellers. My prayer is that this year will encourage us and equip us to be the truth tellers that God needs us to be.
