Parental Wisdom from Proverbs

Watch Your Walk

British statesman Edmund Burke called example the "school of mankind," and its first lessons are learned in the home even before the children can speak. Benjamin Franklin said that example was "the best sermon," which suggests that the way parents act in the home teaches their children more about living a godly life than what the children hear in Sunday school or a worship service.

In Proverbs 20:7, we read, "The righteous who walks in his integrity—blessed are his children after him!" How do we pass our fear of God, love for God, and wisdom on to our children so that they make it their own? There are a few factors. The first is words. We must open our mouths and instruct. The second one is our walk, i.e., our integrity or blameless life, which doesn't speak to perfection, but consistency.

Children are highly sensitive to perceived hypocrisy, which will undermine all efforts to pass on wisdom to our children. Telling our children to do what we say but not what we do is ridiculous. Children will see what we do before they hear what we say. The best way to train our kids to be righteous is to be righteous ourselves. And when we do fail, we should repent and apologize to our children, especially if we have wronged them.

In Proverbs 23:26, we read, "My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes observe my ways." Parents, is that something you could request of your children? Do you want your children to observe your ways? Is your walk consistent with your words?

sympathy

We extend Christian love and sympathy to the family of SANDRA REED. Sandra was the mother of Vangie Gieske and the grandmother of Jerren Gieske and Addisten Gieske. She was the wife of Vangie's father, William Reed. Arrangements were to be made with Bennett-May & Pierce Funeral Home in Pulaski, TN, but were incomplete at print time.

Condolences may be sent to Vangie, JoJo, and family at 5434 Gimlet Road, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464. Condolences may be sent to William Reed at 175 Reed Road, Pulaski, TN 38478.

thank you

Pulaski Street Partners,

I just wanted to extend a sincere thank you for pouring into our program by collecting food and contributing to our food drive each year! We simply could not do the work we do without amazing partners like you! With your help, we were able to stock our pantry once again, and we sent over 100 food boxes home over Christmas holiday! Thank you for your investment!

God bless, Katie Brazier, LCSS

It's sure to be a great weekend! The cost, which covers two nights lodging, five meals, and a t-shirt, will be $45 per person (no more than $200 per household, and no partial prices if not staying the entire weekend). Please sign up by February 18th!

Closing it out:

One of the more copious authors of hymns in history is Fanny Jane Crosby. If you were to open up a hymnal and look at the names of each song's author as you flipped through, it will seem as though you can't make it through too many pages at any given point in time without finding one of her songs. In fact, there are 30 of Fanny's songs in the songbook (Praise for the Lord) that we use at Pulaski Street, and she is credited with having composed about 8,000 hymns!

Consider the following from "I Shall Know Him":

*When my life-work is ended, and I cross the swelling tide,
 When the bright and glorious morning I shall see;
 I shall know my Redeemer when I reach the other side,
 And His smile will be the first to welcome me."*

This is certainly a grand scene for all of us to imagine, but it seems even deeper when you consider that Fanny J. Crosby was blind by the age of six! Despite her disability, she had and continues to have a profound impact on the church. May we all use our abilities and overcome our weaknesses to have the most impact that we can!

Until next time... Jeremy Gargis

DARRIN MCKAMEY has been diagnosed with a reoccurrence of the squamous cell cancer he battled 24 years ago. He will be undergoing several months (at a minimum) of chemotherapy and immunotherapy; treatment began on Monday, January 22, at Vanderbilt UMC. (All future treatments will be based on weekly improvement checks.) Some excellent news is that the cancer has not metastasized. 614 Aspen Court, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

LARRY POPE has been undergoing a very painful chemical facial peel at home to treat pre-cancerous cells. His doctor has now advised him to discontinue the treatment. 4479 Gimlet Road, L'burg, TN 38464.

ERIC BROWN, brother of Tracie Reed who is the sister-in-law of Vangie Gieske, had a PET scan on Monday, January 22. He is scheduled for an oncology appointment this Friday, January 26. 34 Luncford Road, Leoma, TN 38468.

GINA BURNS, former member here, had scans on Monday, January 22, and an oncology appointment on Tuesday, January 23, at Vanderbilt UMC. We are thankful to report that the cancer has not spread. However, Gina will be having an appendectomy on February 2. She also has an upcoming consultation scheduled with a radiologic oncologist, and she expects to begin chemotherapy sometime (probably mid to late February) after she heals from the appendectomy. 379 Henryville Road, Ethridge, TN 38456.

DANNY CASE, father of Tommy Case, saw an orthopedic surgeon on Wednesday, January 24, where it was confirmed that he has a small T-9 compression fracture and a slipped disk. Danny will be having more tests soon. 215 Smith Circle, Loretto, TN 38469.

JACKSON GARDNER, grandson of Mark and Kristi Miller and great grandson of Hazel Violet, is now home recovering and regaining his strength after being hospitalized for several days in Knoxville, TN, where he was treated in ICU for a severe case of adenovirus. 2949 Sagegrass Drive, Louisville, TN 37777.

BOBBY KEETON, father of Diana Smith, was in Maury Regional Hospital as of Tuesday, January 23. He is having medical issues and undergoing tests. Bobby is the husband of Peggy Keeton who attends our Ladies Bible Class. 65 Gore Road, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464.

DOYLE MOORE, brother-in-law of Kathy Sisk, was still in Maury Regional Hospital as of Tuesday, January 23. Since being admitted, Doyle has been treated for Covid pneumonia, a perforated colon (surgery), and was placed on a ventilator last Friday, January 19. He is somewhat improved and is now off the ventilator. 2725 Womble Ridge Road, Ethridge, TN 38456.
